A BY-LAW

Respecting the interpretation of the Municipal By-Laws of the City of Victoria, and the enforcing of the same by Fine or Imprisonment.

[Passed 13th April, 1887.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Council of the Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:—

SHORT TITLE.

1. This By-Law may be cited as the "Interpretation By-Law."

APPLICATION.

2. This by-law, and every provision thereof, shall extend and apply to every by-law of the said Corporation now in force, or hereafter passed, except so far as the provision is inconsistent with the intent and object of such by-law, or the interpretation which such provision would give to any word, expression or clause is inconsistent with the context, and except so far as any provision hereof is in any such by-law declared not applicable thereto, and the omission in any by-law of a declaration that the "Interpretation By-Law" applies thereto shall not be construed to prevent its so applying, although such express declaration is inserted in some other by-law.

COMMENCEMENT OF BY-LAWS.

3. The Clerk of the Municipal Council shall endorse on every by-law of the City, immediately after the title of such by-law, the day, month and year when the same passed; and such endorsement shall be taken to be a part of such by-law, and the date of such passage shall be the date of the commencement of the by-law if no later commencement is therein provided.

INTERPRETATION.

4. In this and every by-law of the Corporation of the City of Victoria, unless the context otherwise requires:—

- (a) Reference is made only to the City of Victoria aforesaid, and the municipal institutions and officers thereof, and acts done within the limits thereof;
- (b) Whenever any matter or thing is expressed in the present tense, the same shall be applied to the circumstances as they arise;
- (c) Words importing the singular number or the masculine gender only, include more persons, parties or things of the same kind than one, and females as well as males, and the converse;
- (d) The expression "hereby," "herein," or "hereof," relates to the whole by-law;
- (e) The expression "month" means a calendar month;
- (f) The expression "now," "next," "heretofore" or "hereafter" refers to the time when the by-law was passed;
- (g) The expression "person" includes anybody, corporate or politic, and the heirs, executors, administrators, or other legal representatives of such person to whom the context can apply according to law;
- (h) The expression "street" means a place to which the public have a right of access;
- (i) If the time limited for the doing of anything expires or falls upon Sunday or a statutory holiday, the time so limited shall be extended to the day next following which is not Sunday or a statutory holiday;
- (j) When any act or thing is required to be done by more than two persons a majority of them may do it;

(k) Whenever forms are prescribed, slight deviations therefrom, not affecting the substance or calculated to mislead, shall not vitiate them;

(l) Whenever power is given to do, or to enforce the doing of any act or thing, all such power shall be understood to be also given as are necessary to do or enforce the doing of such act or thing.

5. The repeal of any by-law, or part of a by-law, shall not revive any by-law, or part of a by-law, thereby repealed, or prevent the effect of any saving clause therein; nor shall such repeal affect any act done, right acquired, or penalty incurred before the repeal takes effect.

6. Whenever any by-law is repealed, wholly or in part, and other provisions are substituted, such substituted provisions shall not be construed as a new by-law, but as a continuation of the repealed provisions, subject to the amendments and new provisions thereby made and incorporated with them.

PENALTIES.

7. Every person convicted of an infraction of any provision of a by-law, which prescribes no penalty for such infraction, shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars.

8. Every penalty for the infraction of a by-law may be imposed and enforced, with or without costs, upon summary conviction before the Police Magistrate, or any two Justices of the Peace, holding the City Police Court, in like manner as a penalty for an offence or act over which the Parliament of Canada has jurisdiction.

9. Whenever a pecuniary penalty is imposed for any infraction of a by-law, if such penalty and costs, if ordered, be not paid either immediately or within such period as the convicting Magistrate or Justices may appoint, the same may be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, or such offender, either without a warrant of distress being issued, or after the return of a warrant of distress unsatisfied, may be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months, unless such penalty, and costs if ordered, and the costs of distress, if any, be sooner paid.
